

Why would the NAB want to take these services away from Americans? They ARE services. When I travel, I need them. The NAB is playing keep away while giving absolutely no thought to hard working American consumers who wish to use the service provided by XM Radio. Shame on them. They should not be allowed to succeed.